

Budapest, 8th May 1904

Dear Sir,

In receipt of your obliging note of the 5th inst. I thank you very kindly for your generous communications. I feel proud of its contents, the more so, as by the high distinction the venerable University of Cambridge is going to confer on me I shall have the honour to make part of a scientific body, which — only to refer to my own special branch of science — in its past was shining by the fame of ^{men} ~~names~~ as William Wright, W. Robertson Smith and Bensly, and in its present is illustrated by names as A. N. Bevan and Edward G. Browne.

I shall be happy to comply with your invitation to receive in person the honours of ^{ceremonial} ~~official~~ promotion in Cambridge on May 28th as well as to express you also my gratitude.

I have the honor to be

Yours very respectfully

Dr. Iga. Goldzweig
